

Volume 23, Issue 14D July 8, 2019

This is the first of four digital-only issues of Canadian Mennonite in 2019. Click on each story to read it on the website. There is no pdf of this issue. We appreciate your interest in our digital content and welcome your comments.

What we say online

What does it mean to comment well on the internet? What does effectively communicating one's thoughts on a web article or social media post look like?

Walk for Common Ground puts faith into action

Friends and family huddled in light afternoon rain on June 14, waiting for about 30 participants in the Walk for Common Ground to arrive in Calgary.

MCC celebrates World Refugee day

Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) B.C., along with other local organizations, celebrated World Refugee Day at Mill Lake Park in Abbotsford on June 22.

Reduce, reuse, SheCycle

For many women around the world, accessing pads, tampons or menstrual cups isn't as easy as making a trip to a drug store, nor is it affordable.

7 digital tools for discipleship

With mobile phones, tablets and desktop computers within easy reach, Christians have many ways in which to learn, ponder their beliefs and strengthen their faith.

Dragons in the Bible?

Twenty-five youth and sponsors gathered at Camp Elim, on Lac Pelletier, south of Swift Current, Sask., for Saskatchewan Mennonite Youth Organization's youth retreat.

From darkness to light

No matter how many times you visit India, the overcrowded cities, hazy air and animal-people-vehicle-jammed streets of this country with more than 1.3 billion people are an assault to your physical senses...

Arnaud Mennonite Church celebrates 75 years

While many churches in rural Canada face closure, Arnaud Mennonite Church recently celebrated its 75th anniversary.

Deepening our walk by worshipping together

The people of Mennonite Church Saskatchewan love being together. In particular, they enjoy singing and worshipping with one another.

Quilt auction goes digital

Over the last 53 years, the New Hamburg Mennonite Relief Sale has raised more than $12 million for relief, development and peacemaking efforts around the world by MCC.

Finding hope in the midst of the climate crisis

Climate change is doing more than triggering environmental disasters. It's also triggering mental health crises and a sense of impending doom for some people.

Walking with youth towards a fearless future

It is difficult to know what the future holds for youth ministry within Mennonite churches in Canada. Change is happening fast for some churches...

Recent Issues

If you missed any past issues, here are direct links to complete copies of the last five issues before this one. You can download older back issues from the Past Issues section of our website.

- June 24, 2019 (Volume 23, No. 13): Four decades of welcome / Walking and talking along the trail / 'My place is right here'
- June 10, 2019 (Volume 23, No. 12): The gifts of grey hair / Layers of faithfulness / Focus on Seniors
- May 27, 2019 (Volume 23, No. 11): Who is my neighbour? / Walking alongside people with addictions / Opioid crisis: A view from inside
- May 13, 2019 (Volume 23, No. 10): When it's hard to go to church / The gift of ecumenism / Breaking through the screen
- April 29, 2019 (Volume 23, No. 9): What 'confessing your sins to one another' isn't / Sharing muffins and friendship / Seeking to fulfill God's mission in the world

--

This message was sent to you by the Canadian Mennonite mailing list manager at your request.

- You can change your e-mail address, name, subscriber number, print issue delivery status or other settings by going to this link.
- You can unsubscribe to stop these e-mail messages by going to Unsubscribe.
- To send feedback or get help, please e-mail listmanager@canadianmennonite.org.